

Let it be know that K-LOVE has been very helpful in my city. We are kept abreast of functions that are going on around us. With two daughters in college, K-LOVE offers positive comments, studies, and music for them to live by. We can also plan to attend activities that are mentioned on the radio.

Many people in El Paso, TX listen to K-LOVE. I know this by all the bumper stickers I see on the cars. If LPFM is allowed to take over, we would lose the positive influence this station has in our area. We wouldn't listen positive reinforcement of what hear in church on Sundays. We drive with this station on in the car and we are reminded to be kind and to love one another. The other non-christian stations don't do that.

I believe K-LOVE's service is in the public interest because we are able to hear about community services that are in need and we can rise to the occasion and help out those in need.
